

Shining stars

The Langley team shines through the volcanic ash!

Willingness shines through

Julie Powis
The Schools at Somerhill

Julie Powis is a valued member of the team at the School at Somerhill and is always willing to help and puts in extra effort over and above what is asked of her.

Julie's extra responsibility with hospitality has been recognised by the client and staff are aware of her professional attitude and attention to detail.

Julie is a credit to the team and to the company. Keep up the good work.

Shining stars are awarded to Petro, Cynthia, Semina and Philavalee at Langley. Unfortunately, five members of the team are 'stranded' abroad and have been unable to return to work. Therefore, we would like to show our appreciation to the remaining team for going the extra mile to provide a normal service at the Langley Academy.

Your efforts are greatly appreciated.

The Langley Team: Petro, Cynthia, Semina & Philavalee

Extensive hospitality and aftercare services

Neil Harris, Chef Manager
Hallfield School

Neil Harris and the Hallfield team have had a very challenging few months pre-organising the lunch service in pre-prep. Neil has successfully worked through school inspections, VIP functions for the school governors whilst continuing to provide 500 lunches for the pupils and 150 staff on site daily.

Neil is always fully committed to Accent Catering Services and he shows great enthusiasm with a 'can do' attitude.

Well done to Neil.

Fabulous focus on hospitality

Rachel Hawkins has been rewarded a shining star for her hard work and dedication to Accent Catering and the client at Mentor Graphics who has recognised her as an asset. The hospitality provided by Rachel and her team is outstanding.

Thank you Rachel.

Rachel Hawkins, Chef Manager
Mentor Graphics UK Ltd

Recognition for Competence

Wipaporn Noinalaiwan (Nim) has worked at the Beaconsfield school since last December.

Nim is a very positive, competent and reliable member of the team at the Beaconsfield School and takes pride in her work, along with any additional tasks, and is always willing to run the extra mile to deliver the highest standards.

Nim carried out duties on behalf of Bruno Menia (Chef, Manager) whilst he was on a course and she looked after the unit to an organised and calm standard. Also, Nim shows great attention to detail and has improved the cleanliness in The Hub. She is a vital member of the team and gets on well with all staff and students and an asset to Accent Catering.

Keep up the good work Nim.
