

Shining stars July 09

Great food brings in more customers!

Congratulations to Julie Warden at Seven Kings High School in Essex for her enthusiasm bringing innovation and inspiration to the food offer.

The result of Julie's hard work has been an increase in sales.

Keep up the good work and congratulations you are a shining star.

New manager at Tag Worldwide

Orlando Acevedo joined us to open this new City of London contract. Tag Worldwide's new coffee and deli bar welcomed Jacqui Turner (Facilities Manager) from Battersea Dogs and Cats Home for a sales visit recently.

We are delighted to say that after Jaqui saw what we can achieve Accent have been appointed as the new caterer at Battersea Dogs and Cats Home.

Well done Orlando for a successful site visit.

Internal Promotion

Congratulations to Nikki Siciliano who has been promoted through her commitment to excellence. Nikki has helped with staff training, mobilisation and many important evening functions for the company. Her willingness and positive attitude in portraying the company in the best possible light has earned her this promotion.

We wish her every success as Chef manager at Which? London.

Five Star recognition

All managers who have received Five stars for "Scores on the Doors" have been recognised as shining stars in the past.

This Quarter our Shining star joining the Five Star Club is Christina at Cavendish School.

Sales reward

Jackie Long (Manager at Seven Kings High School) completed a sales lead and returned it to Julia Edwards (Business Development Manager). Through her recommendation an appointment was made which generated a new sales lead bonus for Jackie proving recommendations pay off.
